Letter from Auburn

[illegible] CORRESPONDENT

AUBURN, Dec [illegible] 1862

THE BOISE EXCITEMENT

While I am writing this pack trains are loading up and starting for Boise. Single individuals are [illegible] at every corner and the only [illegible] of [illegible] is Boise. [illegible] at this moment rushing by [illegible] splendid animal that [illegible] Boise or any where [illegible] dog cheap. After all there seems little that has so much excitement [illegible] save the fact that there is no chance to accomplish anything here this Winter. There is no [illegible] in Auburn [illegible] to make anything out of the mines, from the fact that there is no water and people reason that they might as well be on the way to Boise as to be lounging away the Winter in idleness at Auburn. I conversed with a practical looking man three days since who was only ten days from Boise mines and who had a load already purchased ready to return, he being a trader there. Of course it was peculiarly his province to humbug the people if anybody's, and for a wonder he failed to do it. He left Boise November 24th at which time there was only two cabins built that he knew of. He had been a miner for nine years but had no claim there. [illegible] any claim there [illegible] of any big thing being struck [illegible] had been struck for some twenty five [illegible] had an idea that the mines were good [illegible] what they had already struck he thought were from $3 to $8 diggings [illegible] in the mines of anything like $10 or $33 to the pan, as the stories went in Auburn that he had no faith in such stories. Such was the very sensible story told by a very sensible looking man and confirmed by a still later arrival of which I hear today, but the higher colors of the Boise excitement are represented by a man who has just returned from there pronouncing the mines a humbug but is waked into the fever by a letter from his brother who had remained to further prospect. Not one hundred and fifty yards from where they had been at work they had struck good pay in a small dry gulch [illegible] it is almost always the small dry gulches that pay the best. They had carried their dirt fifty yards and rocked it out making $40 or $50 to the hand, and one day $500 and had sent $1 000 as a specimen to buy another outfit and lay in provisions. There you have all I know of Boise and all I have heard into the bargain. We will have hundreds of those excitable beings on our hands again in a month or so, leaving good diggings at Boise as they have left good diggings all their lives

THE FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY

The future of this section will be written in shipments of treasure for the next decade at least, and tell them to hurry up the Portland Mint, for there will be a good time, not long coming when mint drops will be a necessary item in market. Houses are for sale and a good chance for speculation is offered by candidates for the mining pilgrimage. Auburn will not be depopulated but it will be depleted for awhile only to revive the better and brighter before the Spring is over—As I write [illegible] the heavy teams are maneuvered through the street, and their cargoes unloaded at the warehouses. December has come upon us and we have Winter in earnest. The frosty nights have closed the ditches, and the air has an Arctic keenness, that is even keener they say than at Boise. Among the Boise bound is Dr. Belknap from Washington county, who has started up with some goods on speculative views intent. The Dr. is be himself says, a great fellow to rustle around. Not long since he was out on the mountain tops several nights regardless of zero hunting through the day for mountain sheep. Though the party may have felt sheepish, there was no sheep apparent on their return—they were not in luck. Now the Dr. is bound for Boise and laughs at the idea of cold weather. In his absence the City Council loses a member and the county a Treasurer, which last office is not very important in the present financial condition of Baker county

MORE ABOUT [illegible]—HOME MATTERS

Here comes another story of Boise—50 cents to the pan and where in ten miles square which I send you along to keep my hand in

We have everything here almost except politics. The barber's pole is no longer a wand but has budded into a pillar of resplendent colors and majestic proportions. The barber [illegible]. Speaking of the colored persuasion there is a darkey woman down the street that used to own chickens and her chanticleer used to do duty as the sentinel of dawn [illegible] but since my last some sacrilegious (you know roosters have a sacredness in some heathen land) wretch stole [illegible] the light [illegible] the last week [illegible] since then his morning call is wanting. [illegible] we have clouds and the weather is moderate. The prospect is we may [illegible] snow and perhaps be banished from the outer world and its projects. We shall see.

Rascally Speculations in "Greenbacks"

The introduction of the Legal Tender Notes on this coast has been the cause of several officials falling from grace who have heretofore been above the suspicion of doing any wrong The State Treasurer of California demanded gold in payment of State taxes When the taxes had been paid in gold he proceeded to purchase Legal Tender Notes, which he paid over to the United States Treasury It is said that the State did not get the difference and if it did not, who did? Several minor instances of this character have taken place, and one more of importance will be noticed in an extract which we take from the San Jose Mercury Next to the offence of speculating out of the necessities of the Government, or of using official position to steal a little, is the act of buying up the Government notes when they are at a discount, and then putting them in circulation by paying them out to laborers, and then operating for a decline, and taking them back at a large discount If the public official, who takes advantage of his trust to make money, may be justly accused of public stealing, the private speculation may at least be denounced as private cheating

We have no proof that the offence of buying up Government paper with Government gold, by a Government official, has been perpetrated in this State, but we think there is pretty satisfactory evidence that Legal Tender Notes have been bought in San Francisco at a large discount, and put in circulation, with the implied pledge that the parties so paying them would make Legal Tender the standard of value in all their transactions The notes were mostly paid out for labor, in the first instance, and we have to thank those speculators that Oregon and Washington have more than their share of this currency The laborers who received them, know to whom they are indebted for the loss of ten per cent of their earnings

And so it goes some of the purest patriots are not above making a dollar, although it may be a little dimmed by foul dealing. They are of that class, however, who never intend to desert their country, "as long as she has a dollar in the treasury" that they can get hold of They are also in favor of everybody getting killed but the "last man," each one proposing to be the "last" himself.

THE BOISE MINES —The extract given below is from a letter from the Boise mines, dated November 27th, to the Washington Statesman

Granite creek has about 60 or 70 claims which prospect from $1 to $5 per pan, with a great many small gulches prospecting from 15 to 50 cents to the pan, also a plain, well defined quartz lode, in which the top decomposed rock prospects from 50 cents to $1 to the pan California gulch, or west fork of Wolf creek, has some 50 claims which prospect from $2 to $5 to the pan Wilson & Co, washed out of a six foot cut across the gulch $63, which was done for a thorough prospect Wolf creek prospects equally as well, but is some deeper—stripping six feet Next is Grimes creek, five miles from Granite creek with a great many small gulches from which the dirt is carried two or three hundred yards The miners there are making from $10 to $50 per day and often $200 There are about twelve miles of good mining ground on this creek The gulches there prospect from 5 cents to 25 cents to the pan The creek, so far as tried, prospects from 20 cents to 75 per pan, and the high bars and hills all prospect well. Preparations are going on to bring water on these bars and hills, which will be very profitable and lasting

Next is Moore's creek, some eight miles east of Grimes' creek, with many good gulches between, The extent of mining ground on this creek is six or seven miles The gulches there prospect from 12 cents to $8 per pan— The dirt is carried some distance and miners make from $20 to $100 per day The bars also pay well Messrs Strother & White have bar claims with nine feet of dirt, five feet of which prospects from 50 cents to $1 to the pan. Old California miners say they are the richest bar diggings ever seen on this coast, and it is the opinion of all miners here that these are the richest mines ever discovered in the northern country

Up to the present our camp has been very peaceable Last evening two partners fell out in which a Mr Kiler shot a Mr Fowler Fowler has since died There are about 500 men in the diggings at present and more on the way in

OFF WITH THEIR HEADS —The speculations of officers connected with the collecting, keeping and disbursing of public moneys, have long been a reproach to our system of government An instance related below may have more parallels than the people commonly know of at present. It will be seen that they are going after the California depredator with a sharp stick

A story is in circulation among the politicians and capitalists of San Francisco that one of the five Federal tax collectors for California (without mentioning any name) took some $4 000 in gold coin, that had been paid into his hands by the people, exchanged it into "green backs," paid said "green backs" over to Assistant U S Treasurer Cheeseman, and pocketed the difference of exchange—about $600 As such a report is calculated to work injury to all of the collectors, until the guilty party is found out we hereby tender the use of our columns to Mr F B. Murdoch the collector for this district, to exonerate himself from participating in any such dishonorable transactions Whoever the individual may be it is reported that his head is bound to come off —San Jose Mercury

OLYMPIA, Dec 12 1862

Editor Oregonian

When I wrote you four days ago I thought certainly the Council would have been in working order under permanent organization before this time and that I would be enabled to report that fact but such is not the case Mr Bledsoe arrived this morning with his family There are now eight members of the Council present and the [illegible] for further delay in organization, which ought certainly to take place to-morrow A quorum has met in the Chamber for three successive days past, but nothing done of interest save a complete turn over in the temporary organization—a little freak of caprice unusual in its way though perhaps harmless in its nature It has excited the ire of some while causing no little merriment to a great many others It will be remembered that the Council first organized temporarily by selecting Hon Paul K Hubbs as President, and Messrs Knox and Turpin as Clerks These gentlemen have given place under the new order of things to Hon Frank Clark as President, pro tem S B Fargo, Chief Clerk, and L D Durgin Assistant Clerk. The Sergeant at arms first appointed was permitted to retain his position

The Hon Chief Justice Hewitt administered the oath to-day to Messrs Cochrane and McFadden two of the new members elect, after which Mr Cochrane moved that all the members be required to take the oath identical with himself and Mr McFadden, it being materially different from that hitherto administered to members The motion carried unanimously and the oath duly administered

No business of any public interest has been done in the House during the week except the announcement by Speaker Reed of Standing Committees the reception and reference of one or two petitions and the adoption of Rules and Orders for the government of the House Some little fun has been made over the patent glass ink stands and jack knives furnished the members by Secretary Turney An effort was made to send the ink stands, envelopes, &c to our Delegate in Congress, by him to be presented to the members of that honorable body—and the jack knives to be presented to the Washington Butchers Association A resolution was passed yesterday, authorizing the Sergeant at-arms to collect all the jack knives together and present them to the Committee on Agriculture by them to be distributed among their constituents, for cropping and pruning purposes

Quite a question has sprung up within the past day or two, as to who is the Secretary of the Territory—two gentlemen claiming to act in that capacity Mr Elwood Evans, the newly appointed, has taken the oath of office and by virtue of his commission claims the rightful exercise of the functions of the office, though not having received his bonds Mr Turney will presume to hold on to the office until satisfied of the approval of Mr Evans bond From an incident occurring in the House to-day I infer that Mr Evans will henceforth be regarded by all the members as the Secretary

The candidates for Public Printer are now beginning to work their wires with a zealous cunning I have heard the names of T F McElroy, B F Kendall, J M Murphy and others, spoken of in connection with that office But of this, I can say more in a subsequent letter Yours

Miscellaneous Paragraphs

The Internal Revenue will amount to $200 000,000, for the present year About 7,000 persons are engaged in its collection The proportionate cost of the collection of this direct tax, is less than that of the collection of customs

The Lewiston Age says "Everything that is published in the AGE is either from a credited correspondent and so noted, or em(i)nates from the editors brain" That sounds as if it emmanated from just brains enough to be written singular

The Boston Post says the Unionists of New England are in favor of letting the Union slide if they cannot have their own way The New Haven Palladium says that the Breckinridgers are in favor of letting Union slide if they can have their way

Wells, Fargo & Co have bought the stage line from Walla Walla to Lewiston and the Post Master at Lewiston says they refuse to carry the United States mails, although the former proprietors agreed to carry them until the 1st of January

The Eleventh Regiment Kansas Volunteers, commanded by Captain Thomas Ewing, jr, left Camp Lyon, Ft Leavenworth, October 4, 1862, and in twelve and one-third days and two nights marching, reached Camp Fort Wayne, in the Cherokee Nation, a distance of 325 miles, just in time to decide a fight with the rebels in favor of the Union forces under Gen Blunt

Late Eastern News

The following telegraphic news has not been in print here

CAIRO, Dec 6.—There is nothing later from Hovey's expedition although there is no doubt of the correctness of the report that he has occupied Grenada The rebels there had four cannon planted on a high hill near the town but as they pointed north, they could not be used against a force coming from the direction of the Mississippi The people on the line of march and at Grenada were taken by surprise, and great consternation prevailed Grant's forces were reported to be still pushing southward from Oxford

WASHINGTON Dec 6 —Strenuous efforts are being made by parties from Western Virginia for the passage of the Senate bill by the House admitting Western Virginia into the Union

In the Senate yesterday Harding of Oregon, offered a resolution requesting the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to inquire into the expediency of negotiating a treaty with the Indians of Southern Oregon and Northern California The resolution was adopted

LATER FROM THE EAST.

ST LOUIS Dec 9 —A dispatch from the battle field near Fayetteville, (Ark ) dated the 8th says Gen Herron's force en route to reinforce Gen Blunt met the enemy yesterday at Prairie Grove and won a decisive victory over them. The enemy were 24 000 strong divided into four divisions—under Marmaduke Frost Parsons and Rains—all under Gen Hindman and supported by 18 pieces of artillery The enemy had flanked Blunt's position at Cave Hill and made a sudden dash on Herron to prevent him from uniting with Blunt Herron's force consisted of six regiments of infantry and two battalions of cavalry in all about 7 000 men with 24 pieces of artillery The battle raged from 10 A M till dark and was desperately fought throughout Our artillery drove the enemy from two strong positions and kept their overwhelming numbers at bay

The 20th Wisconsin regiment captured one rebel battery of four heavy guns, but were forced to abandon it under a murderous fire

The 19th Iowa afterwards took the same battery and fought desperately to retain it but were also obliged to yield it At 4 o'clock General Blunt arrived with 4 000 men and a strong force of artillery He attacked the enemy in the rear, they made tremendous efforts to capture his batteries but were repulsed with terrible slaughter We hold the whole field at dark and before 9 o'clock the rebels were in full retreat over the Bost in mountains Our loss in killed and wounded is stated [illegible] 600 that of the enemy 1 500, by their own admission

Several rebel field officers were killed, among them Col Stein formerly of Missouri But few prisoners were taken We captured four caissons filled with ammunition

Lieut Col McLarlin, was the only field officer on our side killed Maj Hubbard of the First Missouri Cavalry was taken prisoner

NEW YORK Dec 9 —The weather at Falmouth is intensely cold with two to four inches of ice in the Rappahannock and Potomac Rivers

FORTRESS MONROE, Dec 7 —Information from Newbern, N C, dated Dec 1st, says it is discovered that the intention of the rebels is to abandon immediately all that portion of North Carolina lying east of Weldon and Wilmington railroad

LOUISVILLE, Dec 8th —We have but little in regard to Federal defeat mentioned in Philadelphia dispatch of to day. It seems one brigade under Gen Dumont, was surprised at Hartsville by Col Morgan commanding three regiments of infantry and two of cavalry After an hour's desperate fighting, Federals were captured Sixty killed and wounded on our side Ammunition and stores in abundance were taken by enemy A heavy force was sent in pursuit of Morgan, but he will probably make good his escape

WASHINGTON Dec 10 —No change of Commander in Chief to day

NAMED FOR CAUSE —Gen. Halleck was named "Old Brains," because he had a head full of brains, the editor of the Lewiston Age is called "Young Brain," because his are not abundant enough to be written plural

SALARY OF CHIEF ENGINEER — At the regular meeting of the Delegates of the Portland Fire Department, held on the 20th of December, 1860, the Board—then composed of the following named members —T J Holmes, Thomas A Davis, Alexander Dodge, Henry Failing, A B Hallock Charles Hutchins, E G Randall, A C Ripley S S Slater and Wm V Spencer—directed their President, T. J. Holmes, to ask the City Council to grant an annual salary of $300 to Joseph Webber, as Chief Engineer of the Department Previous to Mr Webber's election as Chief, his predecessors had received that sum annually for their services The City Ordinance fixing his salary had been repealed, and the Chief had many burdensome duties awarded to him, which the City was in honor bound to pay for. A spirit of jealousy in the Common Council kept that body from doing this act of justice, until now, they appear disposed to take up the matter and settle it at once. The principal arguments in favor of the payment of the two years salary are contained in the petition of Jos Webber to the Council, and another of a large number of leading citizens of this place, both of which are printed in to-day's Oregonian. It has been thought best to print the papers relating to the case, for the purpose of showing the fairness of Webber's claim, and the propriety of its being paid. The Fire Department of this place possesses one quarter as much force as that of San Francisco. while the latter city has just twenty-five times our population San Francisco pays a Chief $4,000 a year, while here $300 only is asked Our Department rivals in efficiency any in the United States; of which the acts of the firemen are sufficient proof To have an active representative of the Department who will devote his time to his duties, it is necessary to pay him—more than that, it is right to pay him

SCHOOL EXAMINATION —The examination of the classes in the several departments of the Public School commences this morning, at 9 o'clock, and continues until Friday evening The patrons and friends of the school are respectfully invited to attend

Petition of Joseph Webber, Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department asking relief for services

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Portland

The undersigned respectfully represents to the Honorable Council, that in the month of September 1860, he was elected to the office of Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of the City of Portland, which office he has continued to hold to the present time without fee emolument, salary or reward. That the previous incumbents were receiving a salary from the city of $300 per annum and that in [illegible] of some political misunderstanding, as he verily believes, the Ordinance granting the salary was repealed. That, by an act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, the duties of the Chief Engineer were made much more onerous than were those of his predecessors, inasmuch as the office of Fire-Warden was abolished—the city then having two Fire-Wardens, which was a stipendiary office, and the duties were directed to devolve on the Chief Engineer, your petitioner has performed without any fee or salary. That by virtue of an ordinance of the Honorable [illegible] Council the Chief Engineer is made superintendent of all the cisterns about to be erected, and that to perform his duties he must necessarily expend a great deal of his time.

For the causes briefly set forth in the above enumerated, and for the equity and justice of his plea, he respectfully petitions your Honorable body to pass an ordinance to pay him a salary of three hundred dollars per annum from the date of his election. in September, 1860, to the [illegible] time; and your petitioner will ever pray

Chief Engineer P. F D

Portland, October 20th, 1862

Petition of the Citizens of Portland to the Honorable Common Council, asking that the prayer of the petition of Joseph Webber, Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department, be granted.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Portland

We, the undersigned, citizens of Portland, [illegible] ask your honorable body to grant the prayer of the petition of Joseph Webber, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, and to pass an ordinance to provide for the payment to him of a salary of three hundred dollars [illegible] for his services from September, A. D, 1860, to the present date T ere are duties incumbent on the office of Chief Engineer, which necessarily involve the expenditure of a great deal of his time, as also money and we are [illegible] that he has always done all that has been required of him in his office of Engineer, which is, in our [illegible], a very responsible one We think that the office of Chief Engineer should be a stipendiary one, hence this [illegible] praying you to remunerate him for services rendered. And your petitioners will ever pray

Curious Remains — An interesting dis[illegible]ery has recently been made at Pompeii In one of the rooms of a house was found a heap of silver and copper coins 500 or more in number, which had been tied up in a [illegible] At the same time and near the same sp[illegible] were found two large [illegible] and a house m[illegible] of the ordinary description together with a little heap of corn the grains [illegible] some what shrivelled fully preserving their shape but little diminished in size

On the next morning the exertions of the excavators were rewarded by the discovery of an oven, the mouth of which was cl[illegible] by a large iron door On opening [illegible] came to view the entire batch [illegible] as there were deposited in the oven seventeen hundred and eighty three years a[illegible] They were eighty [illegible] in number [illegible] actors except weight and [illegible] precisely as they came from the baker's hand [illegible] to this time, but two loaves had been discov[illegible]ered These loaves are circular, about nine inches in diameter rather flat and indented (evidently with the elbow) in the center but they are slightly raised at the sides and di[illegible]vided by deep lines radiating from the center into eight segments They are of a deep brown color, and hard, but exceedingly light The scoop with which the loaves were placed in the oven was also discovered

Indian Troubles — A late number of the Humboldt Times speaking of the Indian troubles in Northern California expresses the opinions copied below

A settled conclusion has now fastened upon the minds of the people of this county that u[illegible]ess they come together and that speedily a[illegible] invoke the aid of the Governor and Gen Wright to give us some protection, that Humbolt county will be numbered among the things that were The Indians having made a clean sweep of every ranch but one on the north of Mad river are now beginning to make their appearance on the south in the vicinity of Eel river Bear river and Mattole Citizens are beginning to move their families and stock from these localities—some seeking shelter on the Bay, others again, leaving the county for good The Indians emboldened by successes within the past year are becoming worse, while the troops under their present commander, are now more useless than when they first came here, if a possibility exists for such a contingency ?

Telegraphing Extraordinary — The means by which the President's Message reached this place in seven days from Washington is explained in the following paragraph from the Yreka Journal

The Alta says the President's Message was commenced being telegraphed to San Francisco at 7 30 P M, December 2d, and was concluded at 4 25 A M December 3d, the whole being received by Mr J Leach, operator, without relief—the wire working continuously The entire Message during its time of telegraphing from below to this place occupied six hours and twenty minutes Mr Cy A Thomas, the Yreka operator, copied it from sound, in manuscript, plain as print, without assistance Every figure and word was as correct as any of the papers below had it, and may be claimed as an unexcelled feat in telegraphing

The Great Northern Lakes — The late government survey of the great lakes gives the following exact measurement

Lake Superior—greatest length 355 miles greatest breadth 160 miles, mean depth, 988 feet; height above the sea, 627 feet, area, 32,000 square miles Lake Michigan—greatest length 360 miles greatest breadth 100 miles, mean depth, 900 feet height above the sea, 587 feet area, 20 000 square miles Lake Huron—greatest length 200 miles greatest breadth 160 miles mean depth, 300 feet height above the sea, 574 feet area 20,000 square miles Lake Erie—greatest length, 250 miles greatest breadth 80 miles mean depth 200 feet height above the sea 555 feet area, 6 000 square miles Lake Ontario—length, 180 miles mean breadth, 65 miles mean depth 500 feet height above the sea, 282 feet, area, 6 000 square miles Total length of lakes 1,345 miles, total area 84,000 square miles

Pitiless War is Mercy — M[illegible]auly in his review of Hallam's Constitutional History makes use of the following language

If there be any truth established by the universal history of nations, it is this that to carry the spirit of peace into war is a weak and cruel policy The time of negotiation is the time for deliberation and delay But when an extreme case calls for that remedy which is in its own nature most violent and which in such cases is a remedy only because it is violent it is idle to think of mitigating and diluting Languid war can do nothing which negotiation or submission will not do better, and to act on any other principle is not to save blood and money but to squander them

Stole Away — A San Francisco dispatch to the Appeal, of the night of the 8th of December gives the following account of the stealing of a vessel and cargo

A San Diego correspondent writes that the Mexican schooner Imperatrice Eugenie put into that port with a valuable cargo and $3[illegible] 000 in treasure N[illegible] One of the San Francisco owners left here with a new captain to take charge of her Immediately on their arrival the schooner left for parts unknown leaving them behind
